

OFFICIAL GOVERNMENT PROCLAMATION

During the past several years, many NATA members have secured proclamations in their hometowns. Even if you received a proclamation last year, follow up with your elected officials again to make sure they continue to recognize March as National Athletic Training Month.

What to do:

- Contact the office of your local elected official or mayor and governor.
- Explain to the secretary, administrative assistant or aide, that you would like to secure a proclamation for National Athletic Training Month.
- Emphasize the significance of the NATA and what activities are planned locally to commemorate National Athletic Training Month and its special theme: "Compassionate Care for All."
- Stress the importance of the athletic training profession.
- Explain how many people's lives are affected by athletic training.
- Send a copy of the proclamation you'd like the official to use (see example below) and print it on appropriate letterhead. Add a cover letter confirming your conversation and re-emphasizing your promotion (time, date, place).
- Thank the official in writing for granting or considering your request.
