

The school AT, walks into the cafeteria at lunch...

I'm so glad to finally be back! What's for lunch?

Can you believe they're serving Chinese food today? How ironic after what we just went through!

Ummm...does she realize I'm part Chinese?

It was a joke!

Hi, Mr. H.

Hey, guys. I couldn't help but overhear your conversation. It's important to think before we speak and realize that things like that can be misinterpreted.

Sorry...

Remember that no one is to blame for this and all our students should feel comfortable and welcome here.
