AT EducATionalists Town Hall

The EducATionalist Community Town Hall session at VATEC 2021 will focus on the many critical and interconnected issues pertaining to student recruitment, admissions and retention and program viability for professional AT education programs in today's competitive educational market. Issues and challenges pertaining to recruiting a more diverse student population into professional programs will also be discussed.

The town hall will feature a presentation of recently gleaned NATA and EducATionalist Community data on the subject and will include a round table discussion among NATA leaders; the EducATionalists Community Cabinet; noted higher education expert Jeff Selingo; and NATA members and educators Robert "BC" Charles-Liscombe, EdD, AT, ATC, Mount St. Joseph University, William Adams, PhD, ATC, University of North Carolina in Greensboro and Samar Long, MEd, ATC (Ohio State University) from the Ethnic Diversity Advisory Committee. Join us for this important conversation about the current and future state of our professional education programs.
