Financial Message
Treasurer Weston read the proposed finance update for the General Session and asked for its approval.

“One of our major projects was to change the NATA fiscal year in order to better align with our largest event of the year and also to achieve operational efficiencies. I am pleased to report that, once this transition process was complete, the NATA finished its annual external audit and continues to be in a good financial position. Our next audit will begin this fall and will be completed and presented to our board by the January 2018 Joint Committee Meeting. Look for additional financial information in the April 2018 issue of the NATA News.

We take great care in the management of NATA funds and fiduciary responsibility is our priority. The Finance Committee recommends and Board of Directors approves the NATA annual budget, our investment strategy and considers new project opportunities throughout the year. Through the diligent and conservative approach to spending by our board and staff, we were able to continue to fund some major initiatives aligned with the NATA strategic plan, which includes Advocacy, Engagement and Development. What you have seen on the screens is a list of many of those initiatives.

We are looking forward to continuing the momentum by taking part in more exciting opportunities in the coming year.”
TO APPROVE THE FINANCE REPORT FOR THE GENERAL SESSION.

GATORADE
Jennifer Schmit and Marissa Yennie from Gatorade expressed their pleasure to meet with the board. Schmit reported that Gatorade is looking to expand its commitments with NATA in the coming year and continues to support increased AT care in secondary schools. She added that Gatorade revamped the Tim Kerin Award process this year, resulting in increased nominations.

INTERCOLLEGIATE COUNCIL FOR SPORTS MEDICINE (ICSM)
Murphy Grant, MS, ATC, PES, incoming Intercollegiate Council for Sports Medicine (ICSM) chair, and Terry DeZeeuw, MS, ATC, ICSM, Division I committee chair, shared updates from the ICSM’s inaugural meeting on Committee Day. Initiatives identified by the group include developing a medical standard for appropriate contact with minors and participation by ICSM committee members in conference and regional groups. The ICSM also had preliminary discussions about an annual summit for collegiate ATs, co-sponsored by the National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA). In addition, the group discussed the need to modify the committee structure to allow for better representation at the NAIA and community college levels.

Motion: To separate out the two-year institutions and the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics (NAIA) with separate representation on the Intercollegiate Council for Sports Medicine (ICSM). (8, 2)

Following additional discussion, Directors Peters and Duffy amended their motion.

VOTED: TO SEPARATE OUT THE TWO-YEAR INSTITUTIONS INTO THREE DISTINCT AREAS: EAST, MIDWEST, AND WEST, WITH ONE PERSON REPRESENTING EACH OF THE THREE AREAS ON THE INTERCOLLEGIATE COUNCIL FOR SPORTS MEDICINE (ICSM). (8, 2) PASSED 9-0-0 (ABSENT 4)

The ICSM will return to the board later to discuss additional funding required to support these positions.

DeZeeuw informed the board the AT Documentation Workgroup is close to submitting its final report to the board for approval. Cuppert requested CAATE be sent a copy so terminology can be included in the Curricular Content Standards. Grant and DeZeeuw updated the board on ATs in club sports. The board requested updates on initiatives in this area.

ATs IN THE MILITARY SETTING
Diana Settles, MAT, ATC provided background on athletic trainers in the military. She stated injury rates are 41% lower when an AT works with Marines. ATs are doing injury prevention as well as rehab in the military. The Navy and Marines are placing ATs in every entry portal. The US Air Force has initiated communication and is beginning to utilize ATs in the field.

_Vice President Lindley and Director-Elect Voll joined the meeting._

FEDERAL LEGISLATIVE REPORT
Jim Twaddell and Amy Callender reported on the Affordable Care Act (ACA) repeal and replacement efforts in the U.S. Senate. Other developments being tracked are budget cuts for health care programs and a possible pending Supreme Court appointment. President Sailor recently spoke to the U.S. Senate on Current Issues in American Sports: Protecting the Health and Safety of American Athletes. NATA currently has 18 co-sponsors for the Sports Medicine Licensure Clarity Act, S.808. NATA had a successful Capitol Hill Day and NATA Political Action Committee (PAC) event in May, with 77 participants.

NATA FOUNDATION
NATA Foundation President R.T. Floyd updated the board on the successful Wild West Casino Night held by the NATA Foundation and reported on the financial progress made since the NATA Foundation’s inception. President-Elect Conway stated reserves are at 30% of the annual budget, with a goal of one year’s operating budget in reserve funds. Conway expressed his appreciation to Floyd for his outstanding commitment to the NATA Foundation and the profession over his term on the NATA and NATA Foundation boards. The board congratulated the NATA Foundation on its financial progress over the last two years.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE FOR EDUCATION (ECE)
Doctoral Education Workgroup
MaryBeth Horodyski, EdD, LAT, ATC, FNATA, chair of the ECE, reported the Doctoral Education Workgroup completed a draft of its white paper and the data analysis will be available soon. The Internship Document was revamped and will be presented to the board in August.

CONVENTION PROGRAM COMMITTEE (CPC)
Erik Swartz, PhD, ATC, FNATA, outgoing chair of the Convention Program Committee (CPC), and Kavin Tsang, PhD, ATC, incoming chair, stated 134 sessions were held by 274 presenters plus moderators and 450 Free
Communications posters were presented during the 2017 convention. Next year in New Orleans, the second day of programming will have an international theme with presentations from the International Committee and the World Federation of Athletic Training and Therapy (World Federation). The CPC would like to see an increase in the number of member presentation proposals. Member attendance at some sessions is down in part due to the number of presentations held concurrently.

2017 CONVENTION
Lori Marker stated this year’s Houston convention was the seventh largest to date. The George R. Brown Convention Center layout was very user friendly. More than 7,000 ATs and 330 exhibiting companies attended. Marker reported on feedback related to sporadic Wi-Fi outages, the onsite registration process and the keynote speaker. She commended staff for its teamwork and thanked the board for its support.

PRE-HOSPITAL CARE OF THE SPINE INJURED ATHLETE CONSENSUS STATEMENT
MaryBeth Horodyski, Inter-Association Task Force chair and Consensus Statement lead author, responded to questions from the board.

MARKETING AND COMMUNICATIONS (MARCOM) REPORT
Tamesha Logan updated the board on MarCom efforts. She reported that Range of Motion (ROM) has an impressive 35% open rate and noted the targeted communications strategy launched two years ago has been successful. Later this year the MarCom team will focus on ways to monetize these communications. State leadership is the newest targeted communication area.

Sports Medicine Legal Digest
Logan reported on the positive reception of the quarterly Sports Medicine Legal Digest, which launched two months ago.

At Your Own Risk (AYOR)
Logan reported on the success of the At Your Own Risk (AYOR) program. She stated AYOR won the Association Media & Publishing EXCEL Award and commended her team for its work on the initiative.
Public Awareness Campaign
Logan mentioned current partnerships with state and district associations and key stakeholders, such as the Parent Teacher Association (PTA), National Interscholastic Athletic Administrators’ Association (NIAAA) and Nevada Athletic Trainers Association (NEVATA). She added that MarCom is assisting members who request resources to use for advocating at the state and local levels.

Logan noted it has been ten years since a Request for Proposal (RFP) was sent to public relations companies for consideration as NATA’s PR firm. An RFP has been developed and a task force assembled to assist with the evaluation process.

Director Brunett shared a print ad using NATA’s National Athletic Training Month (NATM) slogan, Your Protection is Our Priority. The ad will appear in Major League Baseball’s (MLB) All Star Game program and is sponsored by the Athletic Trainers’ Association of Florida (ATAF).

MEMBERSHIP REPORT
Meredith Daniels noted membership continues to grow each year. She commended her team, who handled the Career Center, Registration and NATA Gear during convention. NATA Gear grossed more than $30,000 in Houston.

Go4Ellis
The Go4Ellis officially launched on May 15. Currently more than 1,200 ATs are on the platform, primarily from the northeast; however, all states are represented. A nationwide launch will begin in December.

Higher Logic
Daniels showed the Higher Logic platform and stated the Secondary School Athletic Trainers’ Committee (SSATC), Young Professionals’ Committee (YPC) and the District Secretaries/Treasurers’ Committee (DST) will test the platform prior to its rollout in the fall. Higher Logic is a tool with modules for a mentorship program, setting- or interest-based communities and document sharing. Its robust platform will add significant member value.

KOREY STRINGER INSTITUTE (KSI) SPONSORSHIP REPORT
Robert Huggins, PhD, ATC and Yuri Hosokawa, PhD, ATC reported on joint projects between NATA and the Korey Stringer Institute (KSI). The Athletic Training Locations and Services (ATLAS) project is 93% complete with fewer than 3,000 schools nationwide left to report. Huggins provided information on the Secondary School Insurance Service Data project and stated KSI would like to continue this work and will return to the board with a request for additional funding. The AT Perceptions of Medical Care and Sports Safety Standards in the Secondary School Setting project assesses current perceptions of athletic training and appropriate medical care for student-athletes from various key stakeholders including athletic directors, principals, superintendents, coaches, parents and legislators. The project will provide a baseline assessment to target educational efforts that have an influence on the presence of ATs in secondary schools. The board thanked Huggins and Hosokawa for their work.

MANAGEMENT OF MEDICATION BY THE SPORTS MEDICINE TEAM
Treasurer Weston stated the final draft of the Inter-Association Task Force Consensus Statement on Management of Medication by the Sports Medicine Team will be submitted to the board for approval this fall.

GOVERNMENT AFFAIRS REPORT
Amy Callender stated 2017 state legislative grants are complete and staff is waiting on receipts from several states. Application for 2018 grants begins July 1, 2017. More than 1,000 Safe Sports School Awards have been presented and more than 290 organizations are members of the Youth Sports Safety Alliance. Callender added NATAPAC revenue was down this year. Less than 3% of the membership contributes to the PAC. Director Peters challenged the board to raise $6,000 per district to meet the NATAPAC goal.
EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR REPORT
Dave Saddler thanked staff for a great week at convention and stated the keynote speaker was excellent, as was the coverage from NATA-TV. He provided his perspective about ATs being intricately involved in NASA and thanked the AT staff for an invite with President Sailor to tour NASA facilities. He gave an update on open staff positions and complimented President Sailor on creating opportunities for ATs and being a great ambassador for the profession. He informed the board about potential cooperative projects with the Taylor Hooton Foundation. He reported on his meeting with the CEO of the American Physical Therapy Association (APTA). Finally, he said it was his privilege to attend the Professional Baseball Athletic Trainers’ Society (PBATS) alumni dinner in Houston.

BOARD COMMITTEE LIAISON REPORTS
Young Professionals’ Committee (YPC)
Director Fitzpatrick commented the YPC had questions on the Go4Ellis program. They suggested creating a best practice article or document on per diem work.

Professional Development Committee (PDC)
Director Flanagan stated the PDC is working on the Master Preceptor program and believes it will launch this fall.

World Federation of Athletic Training and Therapy (World Federation)
Director Duffy will inform the board of the next World Federation President when it is announced.

ATs Care Committee (ATsC)
Director Brunett reported the ATsC will offer training at 2018 district meetings.

DISTRICT NEWS
District V
Director Coberley reported Oklahoma did a statewide football campaign on the importance of athletic trainers with good results. Others interested should contact him.

District IV
Vice President Lindley stated district meeting planners shared best practices during a meeting while in Houston.
